

N
Va 8° 40' E

01/12/2000

Common Corner,
Hall, Cottle & Motley Counties

A Large cut stone, about 3 ft high set in the earth. A cottonwood tree, 16" dia mka $\frac{1}{2}$ Bs. N 81° 30' W 64.9 vs. Do Mka as above, 18" dia Bs. N 29° W 96.7 vs. A double cottonwood Mka xxx Bs N 6° 50' E 182 Center of a large rock on S. slope of a red hill, on N side of river is N. 41° 50' W. NE point of a hill covered with white gypsum rock vs. S. 80° 29' W. a red bluff hill in a draw vs S 29° 4' E
This Cr is in a low hollow in a valley sloping to the N and is just S. of a ridge of sand hills

S Line Hall County
NE Cr. Motley Co. NW Cr. Cottle Co.

E Line Motley County
W Line Cottle County

Sketch Showing the location of Surveys in SW Cr of Childress Co. in SE Cr. of Hall Co and in the NW Cr. of Cottle County

[Handwritten notes and scribbles in the lower-left quadrant of the map area.]

From the SW Cr 21 Block I, J. D. Poterent high bluff with three points N. E. 36 vs. A point 365 on E from the NW Cr of 21, the said points to N. N. Pease River is made 150 vs wide in field notes. This place was identified Aug 28, 1895.

NE Cr. 21
A high red bluff projecting into the river. A cedar tree on the N. end, vs. S 70° W 400 vs. Identified Aug. 28, 1895.