

Mr Robison says,

After careful consideration I have reached the conclusion that there can be no conflict between the 240 acres of section 08 claimed by you, and the 80 acres patented to H. R. Larny (now owned by Welch.) for reason that the field note of said 80 acres on which patent issued was made by the same surveyor on the same date as were the field notes of the 240 acres tract filed in this office with the application of Albert Remison the original purchaser of same

Dear Mr Mc. I have been sick for two weeks but now I'm getting on my feet again, good news, I received a letter from Mr Robison to day, that would almost cool fever, Mr Robison says I can now Patent 240 acres. Thank heaven also you. for your good work,
