TEXAS, July 5th HARRIS COUNTY calds wour attention to the fact that he The figure & respectively Lending orimaries for the office of County Surveyor, in the would ask that you kindly consider his past record in that officin conjunction with his added experiences, which are calculated to aid have usefulness in this position. He begs to state that, although he was elected by large majorities at the two preceeding elections to the office of County Surveyor, he was deprived, by the present County administration, of the fraits and profits of the office (emoluments and pay which properay belonged to the County Surveyor and which the tax payers intended to award him when they voted for him.) Because he was deprived of the legitimate fees of office, he was compelled to accept remunerative employment elsewhere, and for the fifteen months last past, he has been in the emplay of the National Good Roads Association in the capacity of Consulting Engineer, and during said period has been in constant consultation and communication with the brightest minds in the United States who are experts in road building and drainage, and has travelled more than fifty thousand miles and attended over two hundred Good Roads Meetings and Conventions, all of which experience he believes has tended to make him of even more value in the future than in the past to the County, in the event of his election to the office of County Surveyor.

In stating that Mr. Horton, who is also a candidate for this office, is the legitimate successor to, and an understudy of Mr. J. W. Maxcy, and that during Mr. Maxcy's incumbency was in charge of the active road work in this County. I but state a well known and record-proven truth; and in this connection I deem it not unfair to suggest that the numberless, costly and inexcusable mistakes made under the Maxcy regime are in large part chargeable to my opponent.

If it be a fact that ability and experience are the necessary qualifications of an officer charged with the duty of supervising the building of roads and bridges, and if you concede the fact, then I ask that you consider my claim to your support.

am, very respectfully yours,

WM. BRADBURN.
