

GENERAL LAND OFFICE
FEE BILL

Effective June 19, 1919

At its recent session, the Legislature enacted a new Fee Bill for the General Land Office. Those dealing with the Land Office will take notice of the items for which charges are authorized, and remit when making their order.

Under the recent Depository Law, remittances must be made in Cash, or by Postoffice or Express Money Order, or a Bank Draft on some State or National Bank in Texas.

Do not include patent fees, filing fees, etc., in your remittances, for principal and interest on land and minerals. Send office fees in separate drafts or money orders.

April 23, 1919.

J. T. ROBISON,
Commissioner.
