

... put the said Patrick McGloin in real & personal possession of a league of land, in which survey there is included a fraction of a labor in the bed of the river, contiguous to the very town tract, which tract has been surveyed by the surveyor William O Decharty, who was previously appointed for the purpose, according to the following location and boundaries: that of the league beginning on the shore of the river, on the course North thirty degrees East 5332 varas were measured, where a stake was planted at the first angle thereof. Thence North sixty degrees West 5000 varas were measured, where another stake was planted for the boundary marker. Thence another line, which contained 5432 varas, was run South 30 degrees West, where another stake was set. Thence another line, which contained 1960 varas, was run South 78 degrees East, where another stake was set, and continuing South 31 degrees East 686 varas were measured, where another stake was set, and continuing on the same course 56 degrees East the last line, which contained 2537 varas, was run, until reaching the point at which the first began. And passing thence to the lands designated for the labor, from the upper part of that which the interested party has pointed out, the first line, which contained 245 varas was run from South to North 25° East, which adjoins vacant lands, and the second from East to West 48 degrees North contained 512 varas, which is bounded by vacant lands, the third from North to South 25 degrees West contained 254, and the fourth on the river from West to East 49 degrees South contained 515 varas, which terminated where the first began. These two parcels of land comprise a superficies of a league, which is composed of one-twenty-fifth of arable land, and the remainder of pasture land, which will serve as a classification for the price which he must pay for it, according to Article 22 of said law, under the penalties established therein; and he is warned that within a year he must construct permanent landmarks in each corner of the tract, and that he must settle and cultivate it in conformity with the provisions of the law. Therefore, exercising
