

Field notes of the meanders of Shoal creek Beginning on the North West corner of lot No. 13 on the reserve a Spanish oak on an island and an elm on the East bank of the creek marked for bearings 1

Thence down the creek with the meanders as follows.  $S 12^{\circ} W$  3 chains 40 links  $S 16^{\circ} E$  1 ch 70 lin $S 57^{\circ} E$  4 ch 44 lin  $S 43^{\circ} E$  2 ch 58 lin  $S 61^{\circ} E$  2 ch 93 lin
 $S 67^{\circ} E$  2 ch.  $S 48^{\circ} E$  6 ch 65 lin  $S 38^{\circ} E$  4 ch 1 lin
 $S 9^{\circ} E$  7 ch 65 lin  $S 46^{\circ} W$  1 ch 98 lin  $S 66^{\circ} W$  1 ch
17 lin.  $S 34^{\circ} W$  84 lin  $S 5^{\circ} W$  6 ch. 11 lin.  $S 22^{\circ} W$  1 ch 5 lin  $S 30^{\circ} E$  4 ch 50 lin  $N 52^{\circ} E$  1 ch 4 lin  $S 15^{\circ} E$  8 ch 81 lin  $S 50^{\circ} W$  6 ch. 27 lin  $S 16^{\circ} W$  3 ch 88 lin  $S 45^{\circ}$ $W$  5 ch 4 lin  $S 12^{\circ} W$  1 ch 97 lin a rock bluff on the right bank of the creek.  $S 54^{\circ} E$  3 ch 26 lin  $S 14^{\circ} E$ 2 ch 7 lin South. 3 ch 46 lin  $S 17^{\circ} E$  1 ch 99 lin  $S 30^{\circ} E$ 4 ch 68 lin  $S 23^{\circ} W$  5 ch 44 lin to Raymond's croping in pecan street.

I James R. Pace do certify under oath that the foregoing field notes are a true representation of the meanders of Shoal creek as surveyed by me in laying out the reserve on the Government tract at the City of Austin under the direction of James W.
Shaw Comptroller &c

Given under my hand at Austin

December 18th 1850

James R. Pace
3 Surveyor

Field Notes
of the Meanders
of Shoal Creek

---

Shoal Creek
meanders

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten notes in cursive script, covering the majority of the page.]