

The State of Texas, §
County of Anderson. §

Pending in the County Court
Anderson County, Texas.

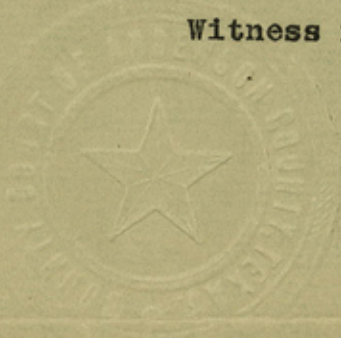

On this the 7th day of April, 1915, came on to be considered the question of the Southern boundary line of Anderson County, Texas, which is also the Northern boundary line of Houston County, Texas, and it appearing to the County Court that said boundary is not sufficiently definite and well defined, and it further appearing that Anderson County and Houston County both wish said line actually surveyed on the ground and established and marked:

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the County Court of Anderson County, Texas, that J.W. Sammons and F.L. Lovett, both experienced and competent practical surveyor, be and they are hereby appointed to represent Anderson County in making said survey, and they will go on the ground, with the surveyors from Houston County and make and establish the lines and corners, and they are directed to run and mark the whole of the boundary line between Anderson County and Houston County, which is the whole Southern boundary line of Anderson County. Said surveyors are further directed to establish said line and mark same in the manner and form provided by law, and make due report thereof to this Court.

E. V. Swift County Judge.

State of Texas, §
County of Anderson. § I, J.I.Hopkins, Clerk of Anderson County, Texas, hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the order entered on the minutes of the County Court of this County, appointing J.W.Sammons and F.L.Lovett as surveyors to survey the boundary line between Houston County and Anderson County, as the same appears of record on the minutes of said court.

Witness my hand and seal of office thi 28 day of June, 1916.
