C.W.Pressler, being duly sworn, upon oath says:-

1. That affiant compiled the map known as "Pressler's Map of Texas" in the year 1867 that the same was carefully compiled and affiant believes that it correctly represents thereon the true position of "San Martine Springs."

2. That said springs were fixed and designated by him from information obtained from Col. Ford; and from U.S. army officers, who had travelled over the said ground and claim to be perfectly familiar with all springs and the locations of the same in that section of the county and especially of San Martine Springs. And that he used every endeavor to obtain true and correct data as to its true location from all reliable sources; and in the light of the information gained placed it as found upon "Pressler's Map of Texas."

3. And affiant further says that in the year 1871 when the Legislature of the State of Texas marked and defined the boundaries of Presidio <sup>of El Paso</sup> County, Texas, that they used the said "Pressler's Map of Texas" and took therefrom the lines and calls by which they designated the boundaries of said Presidio County.

And further this affiant says not.
