% AN ORDER TO SURVEY, ASCERTAIN, LOCATE AND ESTABLISH THE CORNERS AND BOUNDARY LINES OF GRAY COUNTY TEXAS.

Whereas, it appearing to the satisfaction of the County Court of Gray County Texas, that some of the corners and boundary lines of said County have never been in any manner established, designated or located; and that none of said corners or boundary lines have ever been legally and properly located or established, which facts make it not only advisable but highly proper and important not only for Gray County but for each of the adjoining Counties as well, that said corners and boundary lines should be established, in accordance with law and at as early date as practicable for the purposes of taxation and other business and commercial relations, as well as to forever settle any trouble or disputes that might arise. Now, therefore in consideration of the premises, I, J.W. Davidson County Judge of Gray County Texas and the County Court of said County, do hereby appoint and designate W.D. Twichell who is a recognized, practical and competent surveyor to act for Gray County in ascertaining, surveying, locating and establishing each and all the corners and lines of Gray County in accordance with law and this order, and for such purpose I affix his bond at or in the sum of $1000.00 to be in the form prescribed by law, and which said bond he is hereby authorized to make and in all things hereby qualify as the law directs.

That said W.D. Twichell is in all things authorized and required to do and perform any and all things necessary for the purpose and to the end that said corners and boundary lines be promptly and legally established. And I hereby authorize and direct that the Clerk of this Court enter this order in the minutes of the County Court of said County and at once cause proper copies hereof to be made and served as the law directs, upon the proper officers of each and all the adjoining Counties, who are hereby notified and requested to meet the said W.D. Twichell in person or by proper representative at the town of Miami in Roberts County Texas, on Saturday the 24th, day of February 1906, at 10 O'Clock A.M., for the purpose of repairing to the proper place for the purpose of beginning the work of ascertaining, locating and establishing the said corners and boundary lines of Gray County in accordance with law. I further certify that the said Twichell has indicated to me that the work will of necessity have to begin or be commenced at or run from the N.E. Corner of Lipscomb County Texas, and said matter of beginning and the place thereof can and will be decided upon at the time and place of meeting at Miami as afore said. And it is my further order that said work at once thereafter be commenced and when so begun, be prosecuted as rapidly to a termination as may be possible, and that the proper reports be made thereof as required by law.
