

Sec. 2. The amounts paid as bounties for the destruction of predatory animals in any county shall be paid by a warrant drawn upon the General Fund of the county by the Judge of said county upon the filing with him of such proof as the Commissioners Court may require.

Sec. 3. The fact that there is no law providing for the payment of bounties for the destruction of predatory animals creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

An Act to amend Section 1 of House Bill No. 191, Acts of the Regular Session, Thirty-third Legislature of the State of Texas, being the Regular Session of the Legislature held at Austin in 1913, so as to clearly fix and define the location of that portion of the East line of Jim Hogg County, which is a common boundary to both Jim Hogg and Brooks Counties; providing that all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed; and declaring an emergency.

Sec. 2. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby expressly repealed to the extent to which they conflict.

Sec. 3. The crowded condition of the calendar, and the fact that for years misunderstandings have existed between the assessing and taxing bodies of the Counties of Jim Hogg and Brooks because of an original faulty survey; and the fact that the governing bodies of the Counties of Jim Hogg and Brooks are now in agreement as to the correctness of the field notes contained herein, create an emergency and an imperative public necessity requiring that the Constitutional Rule requiring all bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, and that this Act shall be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Passed the House, March 21, 1945: Yeas 123, Nays 0; passed the Senate, March 28, 1945: Yeas 29, Nays 0.
