AUSTIN, TEXAS, Nov. 16, 1892.

R. J. Darnell, Esq.,

Dear Sir:- This acknowledges yours of 21st ult. together with fieldnotes of Co. line of Knox & King Counties.

In reply I beg to state that same has been examined and appears correctly located, but as Knox was not represented, the Commissioners Court of King Co. will have to send a certified copy of said line to the Commissioners Court of Knox for their approval, and said Knox Co. Commissioners Court will have to forward to this Office a certified copy from their records of the action taken in the matter, which, when done, will permit approval of the boundary line.

Respectfully,
