AIR MAIL AND AIR EXPRESS SERVICE

AIR MAIL INFORMATION

Classification—Any mailable matter (except perishable matter liable to damage by freezing) may be sent by Air Mail when prepaid and indorsed for such service.

Registry—Registered, insured, and C. O. D. matter is accepted by the Air Mail Service under the regulations applicable to same.

Indorsements—All matter intended for dispatch via Air Mail should be clearly indorsed, close to the address, with the words "Air Mail."

Limit of Weight and Size—Not over 50 lbs. in weight nor over 84 inches in length and girth combined.

Postage Rates—The postage rate, including transportation to and from Air Mail routes, is 10 cents per half an ounce or fraction thereof.

Foreign—Same as domestic Air Mail to the port of dispatch, for countries having a 2 cent postal convention with the U. S. To other foreign countries the international rate minus 2 cents per ounce, in addition to Air Mail postage, is required.

Prepayment—Postage on Air Mail matter should be fully prepaid to avoid delay and collection of deficient postage.

Sender's Return Card—All Air Mail should bear the sender's return card, which should appear in the upper left corner of the address side.

Special Delivery—The use of special delivery stamps, in addition to Air Mail postage, insures prompt delivery at the destination during special delivery hours.

AIR EXPRESS INFORMATION

The American Railway Express Company operates an Air Express Service over the routes designated on the accompanying Air Service Map.

Packages weighing up to 200 lbs., which are not of extreme length or unusual shape, and which do not contain perishable, inflammable, or very fragile goods, are accepted for transport.

RAND M^CNALLY AUTO ROAD MAPS

"America's Most Popular Road Guide"

A series of maps for automobile tourists complete in every detail, convenient in size and thoroughly up to date.

The marked automobile routes are featured with explanations of the markers. The motorist selects his route from the map, familiarizes himself with the style of markers on the poles along the route and then follows the markers. He is assured of reaching his destination over the best and shortest road.

In addition to the road information, city maps are included in the accompanying guides, which show the routes through the principal cities.

The better garages, hotels and service stations are listed with their location and rates.

The entire United States and portions of Canada are included in the Rand M^CNally Auto Road Map series.

There are thirty-four separate maps in the series, each covering an extensive touring area and complete in itself.
